

Errata for The Secret Life of Programs (updated to 3rd printing)

Page xix: Harry Breece should now appear in the Acknowledgments.

Page xx: “Sara-Jaye” should now read “Sara-Jayne”

Page 13: The equation in Figure 1-13 which shows:

$$\begin{array}{r} +1 \ 10 \ 10 \ 10 \ 01 \\ -1 \ 1 \ 1 \ 1 \ 0 \\ \hline 0 \ 0 \ 0 \ 0 \ 0 \end{array}$$

should now read:

$$\begin{array}{r} +1 \ 10 \ 10 \ 10 \ 01 \\ -1 \ 1 \ 1 \ 1 \ 1 \\ \hline 0 \ 0 \ 0 \ 0 \ 0 \end{array}$$

Page 22: “Just like we saw . . .” should now read “Just as we saw . . .”

and in the hex table, on row 16, in the (third) Hex column, “5” should now read “50”

Page 25: The first two lines of Figure 1-16

that read:

0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 Unicode A (0x0041)
0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 UTF-8 A (0x41)

should now read:

0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 Unicode A (0x0041)
0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 UTF-8 A (0x41)

Page 158: The sentence:

One of Metcalfe’s big innovations was random back-off-and-retry.

should now read:

Metcalfe used random back-off-and-retry, an innovation pioneered by ALOHAnet, a packet-switched radio network developed at the University of Hawaii.

Page 177: “Belonged to who” should now read “belonged to whom”

Page 221: In Figure 8-1, the “No” that sits above “Empty token?” should now read “Yes”

Several of the figures in Chapters 11 and 14 have also been updated to improve the contrast.